

Cornerstone Trinity Baptist Church presents
Women's Conference 2010

HANNAH: Trust and Obey

God's direction is clear and seemingly simple: trust in me and obey my commands. Why then is it so difficult for a woman to comply? Fear? Too hard? The path ahead is unclear? The reasons are endless and ever-changing. Nevertheless, God asks us to comply. This year, our guest speaker, DI Golton of Sunset Church, will examine the life of the bible character, Hannah, and how her trust and obedience in the Lord led her through the darkest days, empowered her to stand tall in the face of trials, and transformed her life. Please join us for a day of faith building and encouragement among women!

Date and time: Saturday, April 10, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
Location: CTBC, 1900 Lawton Street, San Francisco, CA 94122

	Tug of War Friend, daughter, student, co-worker, boss, wife, mother, servant, leader . . . the list itself is exhausting! With all of these various and important roles, it is easy to see why many women struggle with how to balance the competing demands for their time and attention. But where and how does that fit into the role that God intended a woman to have? Come and explore a woman's many positions and how to do a balancing act from a Kingdom perspective.
	Let's Get Crafty ($5.00 surcharge) This hands-on workshop will give you an opportunity to make a unique craft! No prior craft experience is needed to participate!
	Money Matters What is the state of your finances? It is never too early and not too late to review your finances and put them in order. A certified financial planner, who was previously a Wall Street investment banker, will address the following: (i) how to meet financial needs while in college and in the work force, (ii) the importance of budgeting, managing debt, and saving money and how to do so, (iv) the steps to achieve long term goals such as financing graduate school, purchasing a car/house, funding a short term mission or a vacation, and planning for retirement, and (v) the basics of investing in a volatile market.

	Pieces of the Heart ($5.00 surcharge) Dim sum is delicious but too difficult to make, right? WRONG! This workshop will teach how to make three different types of dim sum from scratch for you and your loved ones to enjoy.
	Technologically Devoted In our fast paced world, is it your goal to spend time in God's Word but you cannot seem to find the time daily? Or are you studying His Word but want to find new ways of doing so? This seminar will discuss how to integrate technology into your daily devotions and Bible study so that you may realize the life changing power that God's Word will have in your life.
	Thai Delights ($5.00 surcharge) Do you ever get bored of making the same old dishes? Come explore the essence of authentic Thai cuisine. A native Thai cook will be sharing her recipes and tips for preparing a delicious and genuine Thai meal to spice up your palate.
	The Power of "Fitness" Have you wondered how some women appear to have the ability to handle so much so seemingly well? What is their secret? Well, their success is attributed, in large part, to their physical, emotional, and spiritual fitness. Come learn how to become fit so that you can effectively tackle life's daily challenges. God intended us to experience the life He gave to us, not just react to it!
	War and Peace In every woman's life, there is a broken relationship with another woman, whether it be a family member or friend. The break often results in a visible or invisible scar that has a negative impact on the relationship with that woman and other women. This is due to the slew of resulting emotions and the walls that are built to guard against future hurt. This seminar will examine God's perspective on broken relationships, how to prevent them from occurring, and how to heal from them (ie., how to find peace among conflict, whether to reconcile the relationship and how to do it, and forgiveness).
